To Whom It May Concern,

I, Lisette Miranda, Founder and CEO of PINC International LLC, give the developer with the name "PINC International" at pinc.development@gmail.com, the rights to all icons, images, branding, and wording related to PINC International for the creation of the PINC International App (com.pinc.international). I also give him permission to use any of the content from <http://pincinternational.com>, a website that is run and owned by me. This app is being created for the company PINC International LLC and is by no means trying to impersonate PINC International LLC.

Sincerely,
